

DID YOU KNOW?

- † The Osage Indians first settled the area in the late 1700's near the Little Red River.
- † Dr. David Pangburn moved to the area around 1857 and built a store and post office.
- † In 1907 the population of Pangburn was 25.
- † Harry Churchill was instrumental in getting the M & NA Railroad to come through Pangburn, which helped increase the population to over 1000 in 1912.
- † Pangburn was known as "The Little Cotton Kingdom" with 5 cotton gins in the 1920's.
- † In one month, 107 railroad carloads of potatoes were shipped out, with each car holding 300 100-lb. bags of potatoes.
- † Pangburn's first high school was established in 1926 and the mascot was "The Zebras".
- † In the 1930's, a Tonsil Clinic was held at the high school, where dozens of students had their tonsils removed.
- † Luther G. Presley, a well-known gospel songwriter who lived near Pangburn, wrote "When the Saints Go Marching In" and the New Orleans Saints ball league used his song.
- † Cher Bono's mother lived with an aunt near Pangburn in the 1930's.
- † Rex Humbard, world-known evangelist, grew up in Pangburn and his dad ran an orphanage.

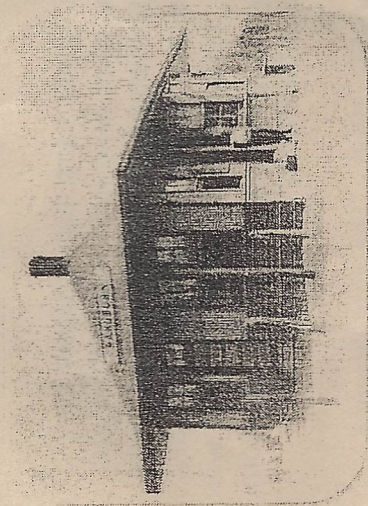

THE HISTORY OF PANGBURN

EST. 1857

Dr. David Pangburn

Train Depot